COLIN A LIVELY CRIPPLE.

AS AN ADDED STARTER WINS THE RICH BEL-MONT STAKES FROM END TO END.

National Stallion Stakes to Sir Martin-Kara's Grand National Steeplechase-Lawrence P. Daley First in the Van Cortlandt.

New York, May 20.—In a blinding rainstorm Colin, which was declared to be hopelessly broken down two days ago, won the $25,000 Belmont Stakes at Belmont Park today. He was added at the last moment, and never did the great horse receive such a salvo of applause as after the race. Thursday the racing world heard with deep regret that Colin had bowed both front tendons, but was in a measure prepared to see him under colors today. Late last night one of Mr. Keene's representatives sent a statement to the press to the effect that Colin's injuries were not so serious as at first believed, and that he was a possible starter today, providing there was no rain.

Colin was brought over from Sheepshead Bay, and a hundred or more horsemen saw him unloaded with great interest. His legs were swathed in bandages, but he did not take a lame step nor even limp. Mr. Keene was at the track early. "All I can say," Mr. Keene was at the track early, "All I can say," Mr. Keene was at the track early, "All I can say," Mr. Keene was at the track early with the lishere to run. If he is to break down he might as well do it in a race as any other place. The colt now is all right, I believe, but I will not say positively that he will go to the post until Mr. Rowe gives the final word and that won't be until the last moment is reached."

Because of the downpour of rain the public feared that Colin would not start, although on the grounds. But when the numbers went up, Colin was posted as one of the starters. He was promptly made an odds-on favorite and was well backed generally. The rain was so heavy during she running that little could be seen of the contest, but men stationed around the track say that he was in front all the way. He was tiring a bit at the ead and inclined to stop, while Fair Play was gaining, but Colin stuck it out to win by a neck. He pulled up and cooled out perfectly sound, and it may be that he is destined to win many good races yet.

In explanation of the bowed tendon scare, it is said that the bandages which he wor longs and Lawrence P. Daley beat him out in a mild drive.

Although the weather was as unfavorable for outdoor sports as it could well be, at least 20,000 persons saw the running of the Belmont Stakes, while upwards of 3,000 attended the morning meeting of the United Hunts Racing Association at its course adjoining Belmont Park. Prince of Plisen, but for a mistake of his rider, would have joined the ranks of horses with two victories in the same afternoon to their credit. He won the Timber-toppers' Hurdle Race and when coming home for the Decoration Day Steeplechase had a safe lead, but McInerny did not take him to the inside course where the races finished, and although he finished in front by a good margin, he was disqualified. The meeting was by all odds the best the association has yet sponsored, and had the weather been bright the grounds would not have accommodated the people.

ANOTHER CART HORSE SHOWS IMPROVEMENT

Delcanta, the handsome jumper that carried the colors of W. Gould Brokaw in the International Steeplechase at Belmont a few days ago, received all of his galloping last winter in front of a breaking cart. Trainer-Wilson had little trouble in breaking the six-year-old to harness and the construction of the cart permitted of good round gallops without weight up. The result of this method was that Delcanta went into the field a picture. He jumped faultlessly and is expected to improve into stake quality among the timber-toppers.

JERSEY LIGHTNING HIGHLY CONSIDERED.

The work-watchers of the east consider Jersey Lightning the superior of Stamina as a race horse. The trouble they consider with Stamina is that she has not grown much over winter and though she has muscle, speed and quality, is not the equal in their opinion of her larger stable companion. From all quarters comes the idea that Hurly Burly's big daughter, Jersey Lightning, is likely to make her mark at the races and that none will be too long for her.

CONDENSED HISTORY OF THE BROOKLYN HANDICAP.

The time-bonored Brooklyn Handicap will be decided tomorrow. From its first running it has been one of the greatest of American races, and on that occasion was marked by a desperately contested finish, in which Dry Monopole, Blue Wing and Hidle and Grame flying past the judges short beads apart. Such grand race horses as The Bard, Exile, Tenny, Ornament, Kinley Mack, Irish Lad and Delhi have carried off its honors, and one American Derby wiamer, The Picket, is numbered among its winners, Vear, First, Age. Jockeys Wt. Second

One of the greatest coups in its history was brought off when the former Chicagoan, Fred Foster, won it in 1894 with Dr. Rice, defeating the magnificent Henry of Navarre, Tenny won when carrying 128 pounds, the highest weight carried successfully in the Brooklyn, Ornament with 127, The Bard, 125, Delhi, 124, and Kinley Mack, 122, being the only other horses able to win it with over 120 pounds in the saddle. ## STATISTICS OF BELMONT PARK RACING. CLELL TURNEY A TORONTO CUP WINNER.

Outstays Mainchance in a Hotly Contested Finish Over a Slow Track.

Toronto, Ont., May 30.—The Toronto Cup, one of the chief annual fixtures of Toronto racing and the feature event at Woodbine Park this afternoon, the chief annual fixtures of Toronto racing and the feature event at Woodbine Park this afternoon, brought together a high-class field and resulted in brought together a high-class field and resulted in a stirring contest, the winner turning up in Clell Turney, which ran coupled with Martin Doyle as a stirring contest, the winner turning up in Clell Turney, which ran coupled with Martin Doyle as gram candidate, Mainchance. The race was a well contested one from start to finish and at the end four of the seven starters were in a close bunch with less than a length separating the four of them. This stake was the most important one run at the meeting. The Ontario Jockey Club added a purse of $5,000 to the race and this, with the entrance money and starting fees, brought its total value up to $5,400. Of the eight carded, Cave Adsum, Inferno and Ellicott were withdrawn and Oxford and Zipango added.

Clell Turney and Martin Doyle alternated in making the pace throughout. When the start came, Martin Doyle cut across in front, seriously interfering with Zipango and causing Nicol to pull him up. The latter lost fully a dozen lengths by the interference and in the early running dropped out of the struggle. He then closed a tremendous gap and at the end was gaining on the leaders at every stride, Clell Turney ran a good race under a skillful ride by Bergen. The latter kept the three-year-old well up throughout and, when entering the homestretch, came to the outside. Near the end, where Martin Doyle is as follows:

During the running of the third race a leavy fog settled over the course and it was impossible to distinguish the colors from the grand-stand.

nearly tog settled over the course and it was impossible to distinguish the colors from the grandstand.

Form players cleaned up during the afternoon, five of the seven races being won by favorites, the successful choices being Royal Onyx, Personal, Clell Turney, Spencer Reiff and Goldway.

Jockey Shilling left for New York tonight. He has been engaged by Sam Hildreth to ride the four-year-old Montgomery in the Brooklyn Handicap and, if reports received here are correct, this horse has shown a couple of sensational trials in his preparation for the race. Shilling will return next week and accompany the Thomas stable to Montreal.

Among the visitors to Woodbine Park this afternoon were Sir H. Montague Allan, president of the Montreal Jockey Club and John F. Ryan, general manager of the Blue Bonnets course. Mr. Ryan's mission here was to interest horsemen in the coming meeting at Montreal and he received promises from a number that they would ship their strings there. Mr. Ryan left for New York tonight.

W. W. Lyles was also a visitor at the course. He arrived from Louisville this morning and returned there tonight. Mr. Lyle's mission here was in the interests of Thomas Hatfield, who got into trouble here a few seasons back over the running of the horse Garrett Wilson. It is understood that the local club is willing that the ban against this turfman be Hifted.

When Goldway won the sixth race Woods Garth was on hand to retailate for the boost which P. M. Civill gave Lady Isabel after she won yesterday. Mr. Garth made one bid of $500, which Civill raised to $800, and at which figure he retained the horse. It seems as if Civill stirred up a hornet's nest when he went after Garth, and the latter is liable to cost the Kentucky turfman a pretty penny before he is through with him.

HOW M'GINNIS BACKED THE BOTTOM ONE.

"Lucky" Jack McGinnis got an awful blow over the Cosmopolitan Handicap. "McGinnis had the tip on Tourenne," writes the Telegraph gossiper. "Thinking to get a better price in the ring, he sent a commissioner from the clubhouse to bet $300 on Tourenne. The commissioner went and returned. "What price did you get? said McGinnis. "Six to one was the best," replied the commissioner, as he showed his card.
"Why, they tell me there was ten and tweive," said McGinnis. "Holy smoke, what did you bet on?"

on?"
"On Lawrence P. Daley, as you told me. You said bet $300 on the bottom one.'
"Then there was trouble. Lawrence P. Daley was the 'bottom one,' No. 10, on the program all right and Tourenne was right above him, No. 9.
"And Tourenne walked in, with Lawrence P. Daley third."

LOUISVILLE MEETING ENDS.

ELLEN-A-DALE RUNS AWAY FROM HER OPPO-SITION IN THE KENTUCKY OAKS.

Cymbal Surprises by Defeating Several Cracks in the Handicap at a Mile-Great Attendance and Heavy Mutuel Patronage.

Louisville, Ky., May 30.—In the thirty-fourth running of the Kentucky Oaks today, T. C. McDowell's speedy filly. Ellen-a-Dale, showed a performance that very nearly justifies McDowell's opinion that she highly gratifying to the club, which announces that the mutual machines have come to stay, so far as Churchill Downs is concerned.

It remained for the closing day to break all records of the meeting in the volume of money bandled by the mutuch machines and auction pools, it amounting to over $20,000 more than on any previous day of the meeting. The revenue accruing to the track from this is equal to that which would have been derived with fifty-five books operating in the ring. This is the strongest argument possible in favor of the machines, and it completely refutes all that has been said against the machines as certain not to be so profitable to the race tracks as the books formerly were.

R. M.—Hennessey will ship his string to Chicago to rest up.

GREAT CROWD VIEWS OAKLAND'S RACING.

Security the Only Winning Favorite, but Excellent Contests Mark the Day.

Oakland, Cal., May 30.—Memorial Day's racing at Oakland was witnessed by approximately 12,000 spectators. Weather and track conditions were ideal and the utmost enthusiasm prevailed. The card contained three splendid features besides three attractive overnight races, and intensely interesting and satisfactory sport developed despite the defeats of the first five favorites in succession. Security, in the Newark Handicap, which came last, was the only public choice to reward his backers, the chances of the horse being materially enhanced by the walking-up start, which jockey McIntyre, on the favorite, anticipated and made the most of.

The Memorial Handicap at one mile and a sixteenth was won by Edwin T. Fryer, the fourth choice. Despite its greater money value, it was decidedly overshadowed in importance and far surpassed as a racing spectacle by the mile and a half condition dash that preceded it. This engaged a choice collection of stayers, including J. C. Clem. Eduardo, Vesme, Logistilla, Legatee and Ouardi and was won by the first-named in the remarkably fast time of 2:32, a new track record for the distance. The winner was ridden by C. Ross, a jockey of great ability when riding over a long distance of ground.

Jack Keene scored two popular victories with Nagazam and Triumphant. Both were at hierative odds and the young Kentuckian is said to have had a good day of it in a betting way. Triumphant was boosted $300 over his entrance price by W. Walker, but his owner protected his horse with the usual $5 advance. Walker subsequently claimed Marwood out of the same race for $252.

Johnson & Dodson's stable was shipped to Butte during the day.

M. G., Detroit, Mich. The show bet on Western Knight lost. To win for you it was necessary that he should finish third or better.

F. B., Lexington, Ky. (1) The place bet on Wine Man was a draw, there being no separate place price against him. (2) The Seagram entry show bet was a draw, there being no show price against the entry.

B. T. D., Branch Hill, O. Antaeus had nothing to do with the bet. Parlays depend strictly on the running of the horses named. The parlay was void as to Fond Heart and good as to the other two horses.

Henry T., Chicago. You probably mean the Fort Eric track, which is on the Canadian side, across from Buffalo, N. Y. The Windsor track is the only one in operation near Detroit. The meeting there runs from August 29 to September 18. The Fort Eric meeting begins July 27 and runs to August 29. Eric meeting begins July 27 and runs to August 29.
George A., Louisville, Ky. A person who, being at the track, buys a mutuel ticket on the field is not backing any particular horse, but is taking a chance that some one of the horses included in the field will score for him. It is different in handbook betting, where one necessarily backs a single horse and must depend on the running of that horse for a winning return. Had Beatrice K. ran as good as third you would have been entitled to payment, but since she was unplaced your wager lost.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Unfortunately for Mr. Keene, Celt is not engaged in all of the rich three-year-old specials. He is eligible for the Suburban and Brighton Handicaps, also for other events of the kind at Saratoga, Empire City and the other tracks.

Jockey Lee is having a tough time of it an the white riders of the east. Dugan and Musg have harried him most, and Miller is expecte help from now on. Lee is a fighter himself, that does not make matters easier.

Tourenne, the Cosmopolitan winner, is not in the Brooklyn Handicap, but is in the Suburban under 107 pounds and the Brighton Handicap under 106 pounds. The clever manner in which he stepped the mile and a sixteenth of the Cosmopolitan left no doubt of his ability to go on, and under these weights he has better than an outside chance in the big races.

Barney Schreiber spent Sunday at Johnny Millin's ranch, near Sacramento, and was greatly impressed with the appearance of the yearlings on the place. Schreiber, who must be given the credit for being a good judge in such matters, says that he will miss his gness if Millin fails to cut a wide swath in the juvenile races of 1909. Schreiber has bred Angleta, a sister to Jack Atkin and a sister of Kinleydale, to Millin's promising stallion, Cunard.—San Francisco Call.

Winner—Ch. c, by Ogden—Lady Sterling (trained by J. E. Madden).

Went to post at 2:59. At post 2 minutes. Start fair. Won driving; second and third the same. Sir Martin seemed to be served by the going, was hard ridden all the way and was doing his best at the end. Selectman swerved to the outside after the start and lost several lengths, but finished very fast through the last furlong and wearing the winner down. Joe Madden showed a liking for the going and forced the early pace, but was tiring at the finish. Bobbin had little chance, was pinched off between the Madden pair while a close contender and had no chance afterwards. Sandpiper, away badly, was always outrum.

Winner—B. c. by Commando—Pastorella (trained by J. Rowe).

Went to post at 3:29. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second and third the same. The race was run in a driving rainstorm and the horses could not be distinguished until the stretch was reached. At the furlong post Notter shock his whip at Colin and the colt came away quickly, but near the end he was eased up at the usual finishing post, Notter thinking the race was over, and this mistake almost cost him the race. Fair Play ran a wonderfully game race and stood a long stretch drive in the most resolute fashion imaginable. King James went well for a mile, but tired badly in the stretch. Robert Cooper was always badly outpaced.

ENGLISH DERBY TO BE RUN WEDNESDAY.

Two Foreign-Bred Three-Year-Olds Will Be Favor ites for the Race

London, May 19.—The Derby is to be run next Wednesday, and the American colt Norman III. will be the post favorite, with Sea Sick II., from France, the probable second choice. These posi-tions may be reversed should Sea Sick II. start for and win the Prix de Jockey Club, which is the French Derby and is decided at Chantilly Sunday, May 21

And will way 31.

No horse could possibly be going or doing better than Norman III., which yesterday morning strode out in fine style in a mile and three-quarters gallop on the Race Course Side in company with Historic and Dame Beauty, which go in the Oaks.

If the Frenchman which Mr. Vanderbilt is sending over for the race is what he is said to be Sea Sick II. will probably be the second choice and winner of the Derby of 1908.

Norman III. is being best backed for the race. It is public backing and of the others recently supported most readily Llangwon and the Irish colt Batchelor's Lodge call for most attention. This morning's market ran this way:

Horse.

Odds. Horse.

Odds.

White Eagle 10-1 | Nelson 25-1 |
Perrier 10-1 | Orphah 25-1 |
Royal Realm 12-1 |
Llangwon is to be Danny Maher's mount in the Derby, Otto Madden will ride Norman III., Perrier will have the services of H. Jones, Sir Archibald will have Piper in the saddle and Bellhouse will ride Sea Sick II.

W. K. Vanderbilt yesterday talked frankly with the Paris correspondent of the Sportsman about his horses. He stated that Sea Sick II. would run for the French Derby and afterwards fulfill his Epsom engagement. Barring accidents he was a certain starter for both events. Mr. Vanderbilt also said that the reason for the scratching of Schuyler for the Prix Lupin was that the colt had hurt a pastern in a recent gallop, and, being very sore, his trainer had decided to give him a rest and had withdrawn him from the race.

The Union Club, or Jockey Club, of Berlin, has formally withdrawn the license of H. Lewis, the American jockey attached to the stable of H. Brown, Jr., granted at the request of Baron Oppenheim, for whom he had contracted to ride. Lewis went to America to spend his holidays, promising to return for the season in Germany. He failed to keep his promise, and the matter being brought before the stewards of the club by Messrs. Haniel and Baron Oppenheim, for whom he had been engaged to ride, they withdrew his license.

Hayden, the four-year-old son of Avidity and Langour, which won the Kempton Jubilee Handicap yesterday in the colors of A. F. Basset, is a Croker cast-off and Orby's racing tutor. Hayden was bred in Ireland, and was purchased by Mr. Croker as a three-year-old in the spring of last year for the express purpose of trying Orby for the Derby, the price paid being $10,000. He made a capital schoolmaster, so proved worth the money, but after Orby had broken down his services were no longer required, hence his sale. Hence, also, Mr. Basset buying him, that gentleman securing the horse for the same reason that Mr. Croker had done, namely, to lead his Derby candidate, Sir Archibald, in his work. A "school-maste stakes on his own account decidedly earns his corn.

Mr. A. F. Basset has always been lucky on the turf. He has never had a big stable of horses, but he has won a Lincolnshire Handicap, a Royal Hunt Cup, a Stewards' Cup and a "Jubilee" Handicap, and he is the happy possessor of a colt whose chance of winning the Derby is a rosy one.

Hayden only cost Mr. Basset $4,000. This was one of Mr. Croker's racing errors. He has made others. Ypsilanti, which he allowed to change hands for $2,100 after winning a selling plate for him, was a dual winner, the second time carrying J31 pounds. Vendale was also Mr. Croker's property until he was claimed for $750 out of a selling plate, and shortly afterwards he won the Chester Cup. Ypsilanti and Vendale both came from America.

Mr. Croker has turned over the management of his Glencairn Stud to Walter Russell, a veterinary surgeon and clerk of the course of the Phoenix Park track of Dublin.

surgeon and clerk of the course of the Phoenix Park track of Dublin.

Harry Custance, who in his day was a famous jockey and rode three Derby winners, left a good sum of money, some $75,000, to his widow. He was 67 years of age at his death and a native of Leicester. Property was left by other notable jockeys as follows: Frederick James Archer, of Newmarket (personal estate), $30,000; George Fordham, of Slough (personal estate), $700,000. Amongst trainers the late Mr. James Waugh, of Meynell House, Exning. Newmarket, who died at the age of 74, left an estate of the gross value of $90,000. Mr. Matthew Dawson, of Waterloo Lodge, Newmarket, who died at the age of 78, left an estate of the gross value of $60,000.

Mason is far and away the most successful crosscountry rider in Great Britain. J. O'Brien, new in America, has had a poor season. The ten leading cross-country riders and their performances from January 1 to May 16 are given in table below:

my triumph, where I discovered last year and sent out horses such as ARASEE.

BLUE BOOK 20-1 WON EARL G. 15-1 2nd and many others.

My record is too well known, as far as winning information is concerned, to go into details, and the sources I derive my infromation from cannot be equaled by anybody, as they are the most exclusive in the country. Every horse I advise is fit and ready, and when I wire same, the right money is down. The coming Gravesend meeting promises to be better for my clients than any heretofore, and I have left nothing undone to make it the most successful of my career. I will advise daily "a one best bet," which, at Gravesend last year, netted a clear PROFIT OF $1,380.00 on $20.00 bets. In the same telegram will be included two daily track specials, but understand, if a track special wins and the best bet should lose, it is never claimed as a winner. I never misrepresent.

DURING THE PAST WEEK.

During the closing part of Belmont, owing to the abundance of scratches and bad conditions of the track, most horses were kept in reserve for the coming Gravesend meeting, where I am in the know on many a killing which is being planned, and have already over ten horses tabbed, whose phenomenal work-outs and private information convince me that my clients will reap a harvest by following my instructions religiously and placing equal bets on anything I send out. I never spare the expense to get in right, and results will again prove who is who in this line of information.
